Fraught at Pittsburg.—The Dispatch of Tuesday last, says: We have never seen as much freight on the wheel at this period of the season...

The Cincinnati papers abound with cases of typhoid fever, cholera, dysentery, and other diseases, and were it not for her well-beloved democracy...

There is a club in New York called the "Cincinnati Club," whose being, and end, it is to have a good time of it.

An Art Illustration.—In Gen. Scott's "American" communication, it will be recollected, he submits a draft of a law embodying his views, on the subject of naturalization, which he proposes for the consideration of Congress...

Now, gentlemen, here is my friend B. who is a German, and whom you all know as a good and worthy citizen...

More Than Fainting.—The Sewardians of this city have incurred a heavy expense in procuring a picture of a man on horseback, (intended to represent Gen. Scott) for a banner at their Clip-way Club room.

There will be a meeting at the Court House this evening for the final organization of this company. This is a good move, and we hope may be accomplished.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy at Charleston, Clark county, Indiana, on Saturday last.

The town clerk was abroad on Saturday night in search of a little boy about 3 years old, as usual. Hope the little chap is safely restored to his parents before this time.

Mrs. Crawford, who resides on Main, just below 10th street, met with a most painful accident on 31st near Market, on Saturday morning.

A bloody tragedy.—The Madison Banner publishes the following account of a horrible tragedy, recently enacted in Indiana: Two brothers, Hiram and Warren Francisco, residents of this county and well known in this community as respectable and peaceable citizens...

The Union party in Georgia have withdrawn the electoral ticket nominated by them a few weeks since. There is now but one Pierce and King electoral ticket in the field, which secures the united action of the democratic party.

Shot in the Rear Again.—At the great outpouring of the New England democracy at Hillsboro, New Hampshire, was, among other prominent men, Hon. James Lyons, of Richmond, Va. He is one of the federal candidates for electors...

The Boston Post says: The Scott party, who have assailed Gen. Pierce's character in the most libellous and blackguard manner, representing him as an immoral man in private life, and an incompetent one in public station, now white about the way Gen. Scott is treated by democratic orators and editors.

Sign of the Times.—We were in company a day or two since, with several gentlemen from the "monumental city," and the conversation taking a political turn, we enquired how Maryland would cast her vote in November.

All Iroquois candidates get to be Irish or Dutchmen, or get to have Irish or Dutch grandfathers, just before the election. The Iroquois, according to their own account, haven't offered us an Ang-Sax candidate during the last quarter of a century.

On Good Terms with Death.—In the Southern part of Tongouin, the highest compliment you can pay to a distinguished personage, and the dearest token of esteem for a reverend friend, is the present of a coffin.

The New York Courier says: Numerous divisions of this order are established all over the country. In our own city and neighborhood, there are some seven or eight divisions, embracing several thousands of members...

Another Hero Gone.—The Troy (N. Y.) papers announce the death of J. Wool, a hero of the revolutionary struggle, at the age of 96. He was engaged in some of the bloodiest battles of that eventful period, and bore himself heroically in the times that tried men's souls.

Mackerel in Brown Hazard.—Five large mackerel are now caught in great numbers off the bridges and wharves of Boston. This is an uncommon occurrence says the Journal, and crowds of men and boys through every available spot when the tide serves. Some find their death, but the sport is kept up on day after day, each one hoping to be the lucky one.

A gentleman at Elkhart, Ill., writes us, letter weekly, to inform us that his subscription has expired, and asks us to continue the paper to his address as he intends to pay the same in a few days. Thankful for all favors, but would rather our correspondent would pay his own postage, especially when the money is not expended.
